Welcome Incoming Students!

Upper School Students at Stuart are required to read a total of four books over the summer. This total includes titles required by specific courses. Once you receive your course schedule, please consult the following Required Reading Chart. Note that for required summer reading books, each teacher will have his or her own assignment or assessment when the course begins in the Fall.

Please choose your additional books from the complete Upper School Summer Reading List which follows the Required Reading Chart and can be found on the Library website. These titles, recommended by faculty and Library staff, include nonfiction as well as several genres of fiction.

Happy reading!

Warmest regards,

Ms. Jillian Wolf
Director of Library Services
Required Reading for Summer 2019

Students are required to read a total of four books over the summer, including the following specific titles selected by faculty for particular courses. Each teacher will have his/her own assignment or assessment when the course begins in September.

English

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course</th>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>English 9:</td>
<td>I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings by Maya Angelou</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>English 10:</td>
<td>Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Honors American Literature:</td>
<td>The Round House by Louise Erdrich</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Clybourne Park by Bruce Norris</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Honors British Literature:</td>
<td>The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time by Mark Haddon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Great Expectations by Charles Dickens</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AP English Literature:</td>
<td>How to Read Literature Like a Professor by Thomas Foster</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Beloved by Toni Morrison</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Students in all English classes will be assessed on these required titles during the first cycle of class.

World Language

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course</th>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>French 4:</td>
<td>L’oeil du loup by Daniel Pennac</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>French 5:</td>
<td>L’enfant de Noe by Eric-Emmanuel Schmitt</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AP French:</td>
<td>Le garçon incassable by Florence Seyvos</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Additional work should be picked up from Mme. Hoppenot prior to Summer vacation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AP Latin/Honors Latin 4:</td>
<td>The Aeneid by Virgil, Penguin ed. (in English), David West, translator</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Background readings from Caesar’s Gallic Wars from textbook A Call to Conquest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spanish 4:</td>
<td>Senderos fronterizos: Breaking Through by Francisco Jimenez</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spanish 5:</td>
<td>El Quijote para estudiantes de Español</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Students should pick up study guide from Sra. Solomon prior to Summer vacation. Please see Upper School Textbook list for author, ISBN in t and publisher.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AP Spanish:</td>
<td>La casa de Bernarda Alba by Federico Garcia Lorca</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>History</td>
<td>STEM</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-----------------------------</td>
<td>--------------------------------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>European History:</td>
<td>AP Biology:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>We Crossed a Bridge and It Trembled by Wendy Pearlman</td>
<td>Survival of the Sickest by Sharon Moalem</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AP U.S. History:</td>
<td>AP Statistics:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Caleb’s Crossing by Geraldine Brooks.</td>
<td>Naked Statistics by Charles Wheelan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>AP Computer Science Principles:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Once Upon an Algorithm: How Stories Explain Computing by Martin Erwig</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Chabon, Michael. Summerland.
   The ferishers, little creatures who ensure perfect weather for Summerland, recruit Ethan Feld, one of history's worst baseball players, to help them in their struggle to save Summerland, and ultimately the world, from giants, goblins, and other legendary, terrible creatures.

   This is a moving and sometimes hilarious memoir of a college senior who, in the space of five weeks, loses both of his parents to cancer and inherits his eight-year-old brother.

Eugenides, Jeffrey. The Marriage Plot.
   English major Madeleine Hanna must choose between two suitors while working on her senior thesis on the marriage plot that lies at the heart of the greatest English novels.

   Sweeping biography of the author.

Hosseini, Khalid. A Thousand Splendid Suns.
   Afghan women Mariam and Laila grow close, despite their nearly twenty-year age difference and initial rivalry, as they suffer at the hands of a common enemy--their abusive, much-older husband, Rasheed.

Ishiguro, Kazuo. When We Were Orphans.
   Christopher Banks, an English boy who was orphaned after his parents disappeared in Shanghai under suspicious circumstances, returns to Shanghai twenty years later in the hopes of learning what really happened to his parents.

   Subhash, having left his family in Calcutta to pursue a career in science in the United States, returns home to look into what happened to his brother, Udayan, who had joined the Naxalite Movement, and try to rebuild his shattered family and help his brother's wife. 2013 National Book Award Finalist.

   A story of love, betrayal, intrigue and the “invented self” about intelligent, beautiful Serena Frome, a Cambridge University student recruited by the legendary British spy agency, MI5.

   Portrays the love affair and marriage between Ernest Hemingway and Hadley Mowrer from their Chicago meeting in 1920 to their lives during the Jazz Age in Paris.

Russell, Karen. Swamplandia!
   As their island home and alligator-wrestling theme park is threatened by a sophisticated competitor, twelve-year-old Ava struggles to cope with her mother's death while her sister, brother, and father all try to deal with their grief in their own unusual ways. 2012 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction.

   Friends Snow Flower and Lily find solace in their bond as they face isolation, arranged marriages, loss, and motherhood in nineteenth-century China.

   A young boy in New York City, Theo Decker, miraculously survives an accident that takes the life of his mother. Alone and abandoned by his father, Theo is taken in by a friend's family and struggles to make sense of his new life. In the years that follow, he becomes entranced by one of the few things that reminds him of his mother, a small, mysteriously captivating painting that ultimately draws Theo into the art underworld. 2014 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction.
Agee, James. A Death in the Family.
Angelou, Maya. I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings.
Austen, Jane. Persuasion or Northanger Abbey or Sense and Sensibility.
Capote, Truman. In Cold Blood.
Chopin, Kate. The Awakening.
Dickens, Charles. Oliver Twist.
Dostoevsky, Fyodor. The Brothers Karamazov or Crime and Punishment.
Eliot, George. Middlemarch or Silas Marner.
Ellison, Ralph. Invisible Man.
Faulkner, William. As I Lay Dying.
Fitzgerald, F. Scott. This Side of Paradise or Tender Is the Night.
Flaubert, Gustave. Madame Bovary.
Gaines, Ernest. A Lesson Before Dying.
Golding, William. Lord of the Flies.
Hardy, Thomas. Tess of the D’Urbervilles.
Hemingway, Ernest. A Farewell to Arms or A Moveable Feast or The Old Man and the Sea.
Huxley, Aldous. Brave New World.
James, Henry. Portrait of a Lady.
Kerouac, Jack. On the Road.
Kesey, Ken. One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest.
Miller, Arthur. Death of a Salesman or The Crucible.
Morrison, Toni. Beloved or Song of Solomon.

Orwell, George. 1984 or Animal Farm.
Paton, Alan. Cry, the Beloved Country.
Plath, Sylvia. The Bell Jar.
Rostand, Edmond. Cyrano de Bergerac.
Steinbeck, John. The Grapes of Wrath or Of Mice and Men.
Salinger, J.D. The Catcher in the Rye or Franny & Zooey.
Tolstoy, Leo. Anna Karenina or War and Peace.
Twain, Mark. The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn.
Vonnegut, Kurt. Cat’s Cradle or Slaughterhouse Five.
Wharton, Edith. The Age of Innocence or The House of Mirth.
Wiesel, Elie. Night.
Wilde, Oscar. The Importance of Being Earnest.
Wolfe, Virginia. A Room of One’s Own or To the Lighthouse.
Wright, Richard. Native Son.

Ms. Cutalo suggests:

Rebecca by Daphne DuMaurier
Confessions of an Ugly Stepsister by Gregory Maguire
The Awakening by Kate Chopin
Doll’s House Part Two by Lucas Hnath
My Brilliant Friend by Elena Ferrante
The Kitchen House by Kathleen Grissom
World Language Department

Grades 9 & 10

Clarke, Breena. River Cross My Heart.
A wonderful book for the girls to read based on Georgetown and the hardships of the black population in 1925. I am confident that all the girls will enjoy it very much and will really get a feel for what the people went through. It was the time of President Coolidge.

Grades 11 & 12

Allende, Isabel. Island Beneath the Sea.
“Allende, an entrancing and astute storyteller cherished the world over, returns to historical fiction to portray another resilient woman [Tete, a Haitian slave/concubine in the late 1700s] whose life embodies the complex forces at work in the bloody forging of the New World.” From a Booklist review.

Allende, Isabel, The House of Spirits.
A loosely based narrative on the struggles of the women in Allende’s family during the social and political upheavals in Chile during the 60’s and 70’s.

Eugenides, Jeffrey. Middlesex.
“Middlesex is a grand, utterly original fable of crossed bloodlines, the intricacies of gender, and the deep, untidy promptings of desire. It’s a brilliant exploration of divided people, divided families, divided cities and nations -- the connected halves that make up our world and ourselves.” From the inside book flap of the book.

Garcia Marquez, Gabriel. Chronicles of a Death Foretold.
This book is incredibly thought provoking - a must-read for the lover of mysteries.

Garcia Marquez, Gabriel. One Hundred Years of Solitude.
“With One Hundred Years of Solitude Gabriel García Márquez introduced Latin American literature to a world-wide readership. Translated into more than two dozen languages, his brilliant novel of love and loss in Macondo stands at the apex of 20th-century literature.” --Alix Wilber

A true depiction of life in the Roman Republic.

“This beautifully presented novella tracks the lives of two teens, childhood friends who have been sent to a small Chinese village for ‘re-education’ during Mao's Cultural Revolution.”

Set in 1945 Spain, this Spanish author gives many cultural insights into the time period. It may be read in Spanish or in English.
Fine Arts Department
Grades 9 and 10

Chevalier, Tracy. The Girl with the Pearl Earring.
A fictional story based on the famous painting by Vermeer.

Harr, Jonathan. The Lost Painting.
A WONDERFUL book on Caravaggio.

Korman, Gordon. Born to Rock.
A high school senior, president of the Young Republicans club, 4.0 GPA, future Harvard student—had his entire future perfectly planned out. He then discovers that his real father is a punk rock legend. The student must then reconcile his two histories.

A tender narrative about grief, love, madness and crippling family secrets, in which the premise is that the main character analyzes the songs stuck in the heads of her clients, explaining what the song fragments reveal about their psyches.

Grades 11 and 12

DuPre, Hilary and Piers DuPre. Hilary and Jackie.
Biography of the famous cellist, Jacqueline DuPre, who died of multiple sclerosis at age 42, written by her sister and brother-in-law. It includes her triumphs and achievements as well as her crises and flaws.

Lapierre, Alexandra. Artemisia.
Artemisia Gentileschi was born in the late Renaissance to an accomplished painter. She gained experience from her father and then surpassed his expertise, working in the style of Caravaggio and becoming one of the most significant painters of her time.

Lane, Dakota. The Orpheus Obsession.
The lyrics of a rock song speak directly to the main character, who decides that the song was written just for her. A story of chat rooms, blogs, self-deception, arrogance and interwoven plotlines.

Lebrecht, Norman. Song of Names.
A violin prodigy and a Polish refugee whose family perished in the Holocaust, lives with a wealthy Jewish family in London and befriends their socially awkward son. After a time he slides into London's seamier nightlife, eventually disappears on the day of his much-anticipated debut, and then reappears 40 years later.

This is a fascinating and probing account of the intertwining of science and music. Levenson explores the truth that every serious musician comes to recognize: the importance of mathematics to the basics of music.

Manning, Sarra. Guitar Girl.
Story of teen-aged rock star attempting to reach maturity, sort out what’s important and decide what needs to be let go. Wryly funny and realistic.

Rice, Anne. Cry to Heaven.
Fictional account of opera in 17th and 18th century Italy, specifically Venice. It is accurate both musically and historically.

Smith, Diane. Pictures from an Expedition.
Recently written book set in 1876 just after the Battle of the Little Big Horn in Montana, and just after the Civil War. A woman artist who is a scientific illustrator is hired to accompany a scientific and exploration expedition west.
Fine Arts Department (cont.)
Plays from the Standard Theatre Repertoire

Grades 9 - 12

Cynical plays about relationships and misplaced values.

Morality play from the Middle Ages.

Absurdist piece about communication.

Chase, Muriel. Harvey.
The story of a man and his make believe rabbit.

Coward, Noel. Blithe Spirit.

Fletcher, Louise. Sorry, Wrong Number.
A classic murder mystery.

Gibson, W. The Miracle Worker.
The story of Helen Keller.

Goodrich, F and A. Hacketts. The Diary of Anne Frank (based on the writings of Anne Frank).
A young girl’s diary while hiding from Nazi’s in Holland.

Hansberry, Lorraine. A Raisin in the Sun.
A poor family and their struggles to face reality.

Harat, Moss and George Kaufman. You Can’t Take It With You.
A funny play about an unusual family.

Absurdist plays about existentialism.

Jackson, Shirley. The Lottery.
Frightening story about arbitrary and unquestioned laws.

Kesselring, Joseph. Arsenic and Old Lace.
Two maiden aunts and their murderous philanthropy.

Shaw, G. B. Saint Joan.
Play based on the trial of Joan as a soldier and her spirituality.

Wilde, Oscar. The Importance of Being Earnest.
Charming and amusing romantic story about a man left in a handbag.

Wilder, Thornton. Our Town.
Famous story about life and death in small town America.

A bohemian mother and two very different sisters grow together through a science project.
Balakian. Black Dog of Fate.
History of the 1894 Armenian massacre by the Ottoman Turks, one of the greatest episodes of racial genocide in global history.

Memoir of a young British woman who left her studies at Oxford to serve as a nurse when World War I broke out in 1914; poignant account of the losses and sacrifices of this generation.

Brooks, Geraldine. Year of Wonders.
The story focuses on the plague year, 1666, and English villagers’ response to the sickness, fears and deaths.

Examines the volatile history of 20th century through the eyes of three generations of Chinese women.

Chen, Da. Colours of the Mountain.
The story focuses on a boy’s struggle to fulfill his dreams during a time in China fraught with many political challenges.

Dickens, Charles. A Tale of Two Cities.
A suspenseful tale that takes place in London and Paris during the radical bloody phase of the French Revolution; follows the sequence of events between 1787 and 1793 very accurately and creates absolutely unforgettable characters caught in the turmoil of the Reign of Terror.

Fuller, Alexandra. Don't Let's Go to the Dogs Tonight : An African Childhood.
This is a wonderful memoir of a British girl growing up in southern and central Africa from 1972 to 1990. It dramatically links her childhood to the spectacular landscape.

Hakakian, Roya. Journey from the Land of No: A Girlhood Caught in Revolutionary Iran.
Well written story of one girl's experiences growing up in Iran during a revolutionary time filled with much repression.

Remarque, Erich Maria. All Quiet on the Western Front.
Pacifist novel about a young German soldier’s experience on the Western Front during World War I. This is a very moving account of the effects of war on the young men in the trenches.

Sebald, W.G. Austerlitz.
A painful but gripping holocaust memoir.

History of a collision of cultures; a lowly devout Chinese Catholic who accompanied a Jesuit missionary on a journey to ship his library to France in 1722 was locked up in an insane asylum in France shortly his arrival because of his “mad” behavior.

Vijayaraghaven, Vineeta. Motherland: The Other Side of My Heart.
An Indian American teenager is sent to India to live with her relatives. At first, she struggles with the culture shock, but comes to recognize the beauty and value in traditional Indian culture.

Voltaire. Candide.
The story of a gentle man who, though pummeled and slapped in every direction by fate, clings desperately to the belief that he lives in "the best of all possible worlds"
History Department (cont.)
Grades 11 & 12

Frazier, Charles. Cold Mountain.
This novel chronicles the journey of a war-weary Civil war soldier as he escapes the miseries of war and returns to his home and his beloved.

Frazier, Ian. Family.
“Using letters and other family documents, Frazier reconstruct two hundred years of middle class life, visiting small towns his ancestors lived in, reading books they read, and discovering the larger forces of history that affected them.”

Follows the life of one woman who lived for over 100 years, born into slavery and alive to witness the Civil Rights movements of the mid-20th century.

Goodwin, Doris Kearns. No Ordinary Time.
Great historical writing about the FDR White House years.

Hemingway, Ernest. For Whom the Bell Tolls.
Fictional account of the American Abraham Lincoln Brigade’s involvement in the Spanish Civil War in the 1930s.

Larsen, Erik. Devil in the White City.
“Tells the parallel stories of Daniel Burnham, the main architect of the 1893 Chicago World's Fair, and serial killer Henry H. Holmes, discussing the challenges Burnham faced in creating the hugely successful White City, and looking at how Holmes used the opportunities afforded by the fair to lure victims to their deaths.”

Beautifully written story of a girl’s captivity among natives set in colonial America.

Moody, Anne. Coming of Age in Mississippi.
A beautifully written autobiography of a black girl growing up in the rural South in the 20th century.

O’Brien, Tim. The Things They Carried.
A compelling examination of one man’s struggles as a soldier during the Vietnam War.

An outstanding novel, which creates rich, complex and compassionate vision of the battle of Gettysburg.

Explores the life of a key figure of the 20th century starting with his childhood as he confronts a racist nation.

Unsworth, Barry. Sacred Hunger.
Winner of the Booker Prize, this well written novel examines and 18th century English family’s rise to wealth through their participation in African slave trade.

Von Drehle, David. Triangle.
A beautifully written non-fiction study of the causes and results of the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire. This brings to life urban and industrial life in New York City at the turn of the century.

Waal, FBM de. Are We Smart Enough to Know How Smart Animals Are?
“De Waal reviews the rise and fall of the mechanistic view of animals and opens our minds to the idea that animal minds are far more intricate and complex than we have assumed. De Waal's landmark work will convince you to rethink everything you thought you knew about animal—and human—intelligence.”

Stuart Country Day School of the Sacred Heart
Upper School Summer Reading 2019
Library List

Ali, SK. Saints and Misfits. [Realistic Fiction]
Fifteen-year-old Janna Yusuf, a Flannery O'Connor-obsessed book nerd and the daughter of the only divorced mother at their mosque, tries to make sense of the events that follow when her best friend's cousin—a holy star in the Muslim community—tries to assault her at the end of sophomore year.

Berry, Julie. Lovely War. [Historical Fiction / Magical Realism]
The Greek goddess Aphrodite recounts two tales of tragic love during WWI to her husband, Hephaestus, and her lover, Ares, in a luxe Manhattan hotel room at the height of World War II. She seeks to answer the age-old question: 'Why are Love and War eternally drawn to one another?' but her quest for a conclusion that will satisfy her jealous husband uncovers a multi-threaded tale of prejudice, trauma, and music revealing that War is no match for the power of Love.

Follet, Ken. The Pillars of the Earth. [Historical Fiction]
The ambitious prior of Kingsbridge, England, dreams of building the greatest Gothic cathedral in the world, and the struggle to construct it leads to a battle between good and evil in twelfth-century England.

Gibney, Shannon. Dream Country. [Realistic Fiction]
A riveting tale of the nightmarish spiral of death and exile connecting America and Africa, and of how one determined young dreamer tries to break free and gain control of her destiny.

Johnson, Maureen, ed. How I Resist. [Nonfiction]
Now, more than ever, young people are motivated to make a difference in a world they're bound to inherit. They're ready to stand up and be heard - but with much to shout about, where do they begin? In this book, readers will find hope and support through voices that are at turns personal, funny, irreverent, and instructive. This incredibly impactful collection will appeal to readers of all ages who are feeling adrift and looking for guidance.

Khorana, Aditi. The Library of Fates. [Fantasy]
No one is entirely certain what brings the Emperor Sikander to Shalingar. Until now, the idyllic kingdom has been immune to his many violent conquests. To keep the visit friendly, Princess Amrita has offered herself as his bride, sacrificing everything--family, her childhood love, and her freedom--to save her people. But her offer isn't enough.

Latham, Jennifer. Dreamland Burning. [Realistic Fiction]
When Rowan finds a skeleton on her family's property, investigating the brutal, century-old murder leads to painful discoveries about the past. Alternating chapters tell the story of William, another teen grappling with the racial firestorm leading up to the 1921 Tulsa race riot, providing some clues to the mystery.

Levinson, Cynthia. Fault Lines in the Constitution: The Framers, Their Fights, and the Flaws that Affect Us Today. [Nonfiction]
Many of the political issues we struggle with today have their roots in the US Constitution. Cynthia and Sanford Levinson take readers back to the creation of this historic document and discuss how contemporary problems were first introduced?then they offer possible solutions. Think Electoral College, gerrymandering, even the Senate. Many of us take these features in our system for granted. But they came about through haggling in an overheated room in 1787, and we're still experiencing the ramifications.

Mandel, Emily St. John. Station Eleven. [Science Fiction]
In a future in which a pandemic has left few survivors, actress Kirsten Raymonde, having witnessed paparazzo-turned-EMT Jeevan Chaudhary try to save the life of actor Arthur Leander after he suffered a heart attack on stage, travels with a troupe performing Shakespeare and finds herself in a community in which a prophet will not let anyone leave alive. Includes subplots about Jeevan as he watches the world change from the pandemic and Arthur before his death. 2014 National Book Award Finalist.
Moore, Kate. The Radium Girls: The Dark Story of America’s Shining Women. [Nonfiction]
The Curies' newly discovered element of radium makes gleaming headlines across the nation as the fresh face of beauty, and wonder drug of the medical community. From body lotion to tonic water, the popular new element shines bright in the otherwise dark years of the First World War. Meanwhile, hundreds of girls toil amidst the glowing dust of the radium-dial factories. The glittering chemical covers their bodies from head to toe; they light up the night like industrious fireflies. With such a coveted job, these "shining girls" are the luckiest alive -- until they begin to fall mysteriously ill.

Ng, Celeste. Little Fires Everywhere. [Realistic Fiction]
Little Fires Everywhere explores the weight of secrets, the nature of art and identity, and the ferocious pull of motherhood - and the danger of believing that following the rules can avert disaster.

Perkins, Mitali. You Bring the Distant Near. [Realistic Fiction]
From 1965 through the present, an Indian American family adjusts to life in New York City, alternately fending off and welcoming challenges to their own traditions.

Reed, Amy, ed. Our Stories, Our Voices. [Nonfiction]
This collection of twenty-one essays from major YA authors--including award-winning and bestselling writers--touches on a powerful range of topics related to growing up female in today's America, and the intersection with race, religion, and ethnicity. Sure to inspire hope and solidarity to anyone who reads it, Our Stories, Our Voices belongs on every young woman's shelf.

Sanchez, Erika L. I Am Not Your Perfect Mexican Daughter. [Realistic Fiction]
Perfect Mexican daughters do not go away to college. And they do not move out of their parents' house after high school graduation. Perfect Mexican daughters never abandon their family. But Julia is not your perfect Mexican daughter. That was Olga's role. Then a tragic accident on the busiest street in Chicago leaves Olga dead and Julia left behind to reassemble the shattered pieces of her family. And no one seems to acknowledge that Julia is broken, too. Instead, her mother seems to channel her grief into pointing out every possible way Julia has failed.

Semple, Marie. Where'd You Go, Bernadette? [Realistic Fiction]
When Bee aces her report card she claims her reward, which is a trip to Antarctica, but her mother, Bernadette, disappears due to her intensifying allergy to Seattle and people in general, which has made her so agoraphobic that a virtual assistant in India now runs her most basic errands and Bee uses emails, invoices, school memos, private correspondence, and other evidence to try and understand why her mother has left.

Stone, Nic. Dear Martin. [Realistic Fiction]
Justyce McAllister is a good kid, an honor student, and always there to help a friend--but none of that matters to the police officer who just put him in handcuffs. Justyce looks to the teachings of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. for answers. But do they hold up anymore? He starts a journal to Dr. King to find out.

Thomas, Angie. On the Come Up. [Realistic Fiction]
Sixteen-year-old Bri hopes to become a great rapper, and after her first song goes viral for all the wrong reasons, must decide whether to sell out or face eviction with her widowed mother.

Zoboi, Ibi. Pride. [Realistic Fiction]
Pride and Prejudice gets remixed in this smart, funny, gorgeous retelling of the classic, starring all characters of color, from Ibi Zoboi, National Book Award finalist and author of American Street.

Stuart Country Day School of the Sacred Heart
Upper School Summer Reading 2019
Theology Department
Grades 9 & 10

A poignant story about celebrating the gift of life told by a man dying of a terminal illness.

Boylan, Jennifer F. She’s Not There: A Life in Two Genders.
Boylan shares her journey to living an authentic life. She relied on support from friends and family in her search for identity, but the most important voice she needed to hear to was her own.

Canin, Ethan. The Palace Thief.
The movie The Emperor’s Club is based on this book which examines how a person’s actions throughout life form the foundation for his or her character.

Young schoolgirl, Sophie, is called to investigate a mystery by an unknown teacher. Sophie’s ensuing lessons delve into the meaning of life and the history of philosophy. Deep thinkers and mystery buffs, alike, will love this.

Harris, Joanne. Chocolat.
This story follows the experience of a woman and her daughter as they open a chocolate shop in a strict French village. They challenge the townspeople to consider the difference between the letter of the law and the spirit of the law.

Hesse, Herman. Siddhartha.
Classic fiction about a man’s Buddha-like journey from living the high life to choosing the contemplative life. A terrific read and a must for anyone interested in Buddhism.

Hoff, Benjamin. The Tao of Pooh.
Did you grow up with Winnie-the-Pooh? Did you know that his stories can be lessons in Taoism? That’s what Hoff shows. A fun, easy read for anyone who believes in simplicity and nature’s lessons. Also, a must for anyone interested in Taoism.

Kirberger, Kimberly. No Body’s Perfect.
Kirberger’s collection of stories by real teens about body image, self-acceptance, and the search for identity.

Leddy, Mary Jo. Radical Gratitude: Discovering Joy through Everyday Thankfulness.
Gratitude bridges the gulf between our spiritual and material worlds. By coming to appreciate the earthly things around us that give true joy, we open the path to greater authenticity and discover what is most real in ourselves.

Welcome to Oz, but from the Wicked Witch’s perspective. A great example of reconstruction and interpretation from a woman’s point of view with reflection on the notion of good and evil.

Making decisions based upon your own call for greatness is a key component of life. Palmer challenges us to listen to our own life and to be our own person despite many societal pressures.

Reuven and Danny have a cross-cultural friendship. Together they negotiate adolescence, family conflicts, crisis of faith, loss, love, and the journey to adulthood.

Stuart Country Day School of the Sacred Heart
Upper School Summer Reading 2019
Old & new favorites from Mr. A’s bookshelf

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>FICTION</th>
<th>NON-FICTION</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Bradley, Marion Zimmer. The Mists of Avalon. A retelling of the Arthurian Legend from a the point of view of Morgaine, the woman behind the throne.</td>
<td>Amory, Cleveland The Cat Who Came for Christmas. A true story of how an abandoned cat worked its way into the heart of the least likely person to take to a cat.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tolkien, J.R.R. The Hobbit. The story of the least likely character to venture forth on an adventure.</td>
<td>Rubenstein, Richard, E. Aristotle's Children: How Christians, Muslims, and Jews Rediscovered Ancient Wisdom and Illuminated the Middle Ages. A great story of how the scholars of the Middle Ages took the writings and ideas of Aristotle and constructed a comprehensive worldview and a dynamic dialogue across religious traditions.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>West, Morris, The Shoes of the Fisherman. An almost &quot;prophetic&quot; story about a newly elected pope from a communist country who must find his voice as he tries to move the Church into living the Gospel in the contemporary world.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brown, Dan, Origin. A novel that correlates the accelerating rise of AI and Darwin's Theory of Evolution. It reads like a mystery novel and raises some really interesting issues about AI.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>James, P.D, The Mistletoe Murder and Other Stories. Two stories about the brilliant poet detective Adam Dalgliesh and two other really great stories from the master of detective mystery fiction.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russo, Richard, Straight Man. A truly funny novel about a reluctant interim Chair of the English Department at a small college and his efforts to champion the Humanities, stop the other members of the department from sabotaging one another and keep his sanity.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Alkins, P.W. The Periodic Kingdom.
A sweeping history of the periodic table that connects chemistry, physics and human experience.

Coelho, Paulo. The Alchemist.
Science and spirituality combine in this fascinating fable.

Mr. Hurford recommends - Faulks, Sebastian. Engleby.
Faulks reinvents the unreliable narrator with his singular, haunting creation—Mike Engleby.

Feynman, Richard. Surely You're Joking, Mr. Feynman.
Humorous book about his life, science stuff, and self-examination.

A study of animal behavior that maintains that animals resemble autistic people in that they think visually rather than linguistically.

Chronicles the lives and careers of the men and women responsible for the creation of the digital age.

Lambert, Joan Dahr. Circles of Stone.
A powerful account of the prehistoric roots of women as leaders.

Morris, Richard. Last Sorcerers: The Path from Alchemy to the Periodic Table.
An amazing scientific saga comes to life on these pages!

A history of codes, from early communication codes such as Braille and Morse code through contemporary computer languages.

Plait, Philip. Bad Astronomy.
Book about science and astronomy misconceptions and hoaxes.

Rouche, B. The Medical Detectives.
This collection is a "page-turner." Each story is a quick and fascinating read.

Sachs, Oliver. Uncle Tungsten: Memories of a Chemical Boyhood.
Memoir of Dr. Sachs’ childhood and of his uncle, a chemist.

Sachs, Oliver. The Man Who Mistook His Wife for a Hat.
Interesting stories involving how the brain, and diseases of the brain, can change our perceptions of reality.

The author describes her life with prosopagnosia, a rare neurological condition that causes her to be unable to recognize people's faces, and details how face-blindness affected her childhood, relationships, and family.

Discusses the evolution of codes and their impact on history, and investigates the relevance of encryption for modern society.

A shocking account of the largest volcanic eruption in history in which 40,000 people lost their lives.

Called by the New Yorker a “pop-science ghost story,” what would be left behind if the human population were suddenly and irrevocably wiped out?