

Summer Reading 2021 - Incoming Seventh and Eighth Grade

All Middle School students are required to read three or four books over the summer. Each student coming into either the seventh or eighth grade must read the required titles for her grade. For grade seven each student must read the titles listed as well as a self selected title from the Recommended Reading List.

Students should complete a reading log for each of the books read. Logs may take any form that the student selects but should include notes on characters met, plot summary, themes, literary devices used, connections, questions or predictions. Additionally, students should note new or interesting words in the text.

In September the books will be discussed in class. Further, students will take comprehension check assessments as well as complete written assignments about the books.

The required books are listed below:

Incoming Grade Seven

I Am Malala by Malala Yousafzai (Young Readers Edition)
Hidden Figures by Margot Lee Shetterly (Young Readers Edition)
Plus one selected book from the Recommended Reading List

Incoming Grade Eight

Piecing Me Together by Renee Watson
Echo by Pam Munoz Ryan
Warriors Don't Cry By Melba Pattillo Beals (Also a Civics requirement)
